

A Night with Illinois Special Needs Planning Experts

A Town Hall discussion covering the most challenging issues facing families with loved ones with disabilities

- Transitioning through life
- Preparing your family for the future
- Communicating your planning to those who will be involved
- Building community relationships

Thursday, April 11, 2019 • 7:00 – 8:30 PM
Takiff Center Community Hall
999 Green Bay Road, Glencoe IL 60022

Dr. Meghan Burke, University of Illinois

- Sibling of a brother with Down Syndrome
- Masters and Doctoral degrees in Special Education
- Board-Certified Behavior Analyst
- Nationally recognized expert in future planning and care for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities

Ann Sickon, Center for Independent Futures

- Parent and sibling of individuals with disabilities
- Professional experience in nursing, healthcare businesses and health law
- Executive Director at Center for Independent Futures
- Nationally recognized expert in person-centered planning and housing solutions

Mike Walther, Oak Wealth Advisors

- Sibling of a brother on the Autism spectrum
- Founder and President of Oak Wealth Advisors
- MBA and CPA, CFA, and CFP® designations
- Nationally recognized expert in special needs financial planning

RSVP: Center for Independent Futures • P: 847.328.2044 • E: center@independentfutures.com
Space is Limited. Register Early!